Speaker: Paul Sutton

Paul is Director of Assets & Development at Connexus.

Prior to his appointment in 2017 he undertook various roles for South Shropshire Housing Association as Managing Director, Operations Director managing estate and support services together with development, asset management and maintenance.

During his time at Shropshire Housing Group, Paul oversaw an imaginative, community-led development, to renovate a disused local pub.

The project, described as a 'ground-breaking collaboration' saw local people, Shropshire Housing Group and Shropshire Council agree on an innovative plan to use Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL) for a small scale housing development around the site of a disused pub, The Pheasant at Neenton.

Paul is a Chartered Surveyor with a wide portfolio in the public and commercial sectors. Paul leads the investment programme and procurement function at Connexus and is an active board member of Central Housing Investment Consortium.
